

TREES - Large (over 10m tall)

Botanical Name	Common Name	Dimensions (H x W)	General Description	Tolerances	Uses	Native (yes/no)	Notes	Photos
Brachychiton populneus	Kurrajong	12m x 8m	Hardy attractive native tree with bright green glossy leaves	Drought Hot temperatures	Bird attracting Bee attracting Parks and gardens	Yes	Have very attractive glossy leaves Can be prone to Sawfly attack Seed can be ground up as a coffee substitute
Callitris endlicheri	Black Cypress Pine	15m x 10m	Native compact evergreen conifer	Drought Hot temperatures Poor soils	Windbreaks Bird feeding A 'formal' tree for parks, gardens and avenues.	Yes	An also use C. glaucophylla as an alternative. Has to be well drained
Casuarina cunninghamiana	River Sheoke	35m x 10m	Attractive evergreen tree with fine grey needle like leaves	Wet and dry conditions Hot temperatures	Screening plant River bank stabilisation Birds and insects	Yes	Very palatable to stock – deer are particularly fond of it Fruits rattle in the wind and is v melodic
Ceratonia siliqua	Carob Bean	15m x 10m	Dioecious evergreen tree	Drought Hot temperatures Frost	Feature tree in a garden. Bird attracting - female plants that produce fruit	No	Member of the Pea family – Mediterranean origin - very hardy Males do not produce fruit
Cupressus sempervirens 'Glauc'	Pencil Pine	15m x 1m	Upright growing thin neat conifer with a blue tinge to its foliage	Frost Drought	Parks and gardens Tight areas Structural planting	No	Doesn't set any cones
Eucalyptus bridgesiana	Apple Box	20m x 15m	Large evergreen tree	Hot temperatures Compaction	Shade tree Bird & bee attracting Wind break	Yes	Likes well drained soils
Eucalyptus cadens	Warby Swamp Gum	10-25m x 10-15m	Medium sized spreading tree	Wet sites – anaerobic soils Frost Strong winds	Gully and river bank erosion control Windbreaks Bees Mammal habitat	Yes	Pink leaves when very young
Eucalyptus dives	Broad-leaved Peppermint	20m x 15m	Medium sized tree with spreading crown	Frost Drought Wind Poor soils	Shade Coppicing for firewood Birds and bees	Yes	Fast growing attractive species
Eucalyptus goniolalys	Long-leaf Box	15m x 10m	Medium sized tree with very long heavy leaves	Drought Frost Rocky poor soils	Windbreak Birds Hollows for mammals	Yes	Koala habitat species
Eucalyptus kybeanensis	Kybean Mallee Ash	15m x 10m	Medium sized tree usually multi-stemmed with smooth white bark	Drought Very dry sites Frost	Feature tree in a native garden Cold 'sink' sites in a garden Birds and bees	Yes	Attractive Mallee Form – very tough
Eucalyptus mannifera	Brittle Gum	25m x 20m	Medium sized tree with an open crown	Frost Drought Ephemeral wet areas	Coppicing for firewood Birds, bees and mammal habitat	Yes	Highly ornamental tree due its white trunk
Eucalyptus melliodora	Yellow Box	30m x 15m	Medium sized tall tree – attractive small foliage and flowers with a sweet fragrance	Poor soils Moderate frost Good on steep slopes Drought once established	Shade tree Bird & bee attracting Smaller varieties available for gardens	Yes	Some good varieties eg. 'Rosea' Likes well drained soils

TREES - Large (over 10m tall)

Botanical Name	Common Name	Dimensions (H x W)	General Description	Tolerances	Uses	Native (yes/no)	Notes	Photos
Eucalyptus polyanthemos ssp. vestita	Red Box	25m x 15m	Medium sized tree with a short trunk and dense spreading canopy	Drought Frost Wind Heavy soils	Windbreak Bird, bee and mammal habitat – hollows Parks and gardens	Yes	Great firewood tree Attractive bluish round foliage
Eucalyptus sideroxylon ssp. sideroxylon	Red Ironbark Mugga	20m x 15m	Medium sized upright tree and rough textured dark brown bark	Frost Drought Poor rocky soils	Slope erosion Birds, bees and mammal habitat Prolific blossom attractive for parks	Yes	Moderate growth rate
Eucalyptus viminalis	Manna Gum	50m x 20m	Tall upright tree	Seasonal inundation Frost Snow	Very fast growing Attractive for parks and gardens near waterways Bees	Yes	Koala habitat tree
Hymenosporum flavum	Native Frangipani	20m x 5-10m	Tall straight growing evergreen tree –very attractive foliage	Frost Moderate drought Dappled shade Alkaline soils	Bees Butterflies Feature tree in sheltered positions in the garden	Yes	Flowers very fragrant – similar to Frangipani
Grevillea robusta	Silky Oak	8-20m x 5-14m	Fast growing upright evergreen tree	Frost Drought Poor soils	Birds, bees and mammal habitat Shade Good for large parks and gardens	Yes	Very attractive proteaceous flowers – burnt orange Very hardy species
Lagerstomia indica	Crepe Myrtle	6-10m x 6m	Deciduous vase shaped medium sized tree	Drought Frost Full sun Hot winds	Attractive bark, flowers and autumn colour. Great tree for parks and gardens and as a feature tree	No	Prefer this species when not cut back – has a very nice form and is less work. Could be classed as a small tree
Pyrus calleryana	Ornamental Pear(s)	11m x 3m	Deciduous medium sized tree with insignificant fruits and fine white flowers	Drought Frost	Autumn colour Avenues – good on mass Parks and gardens	No	Some good smaller varieties – 'Capital ' 'Winterglow' & 'Chanticleer'
Plantanus orientalis	Plane Tree	30m x 20m	Deciduous large tree with attractive bark and foliage	Compaction Drought	Great tree for compacted streetscapes. Shade	No	Fruits can be messy. Very long living
Ulmus parvifolia	Chinese Elm	15m x 10m	Deciduous tree with a slightly weeping form	Frost Drought when established. Salt Heavy soils Hot temperatures	Parks and gardens Attractive bark in winter	No	Resistant to Dutch Elm Disease	